The Charles Chips company was started in 1942 when Effie Musser sold her potato chips through a distributor, who put them in distinctive tins, and named them Charles Chips after Charles Street in Baltimore. Effie and her husband, moved production to a professional kitchen in 1946; and offered home delivery of their chips. The Scardino family bought the brand in 2011, and brought back the original recipes and tins. They now sell chips, pretzels, and cookies from their website and other outlets. The E-Z Street motorized Divco truck is made by Williams by Bachmann. This Truck is a perfect companion to the METCA release of the 9700/6464 sized box car # 6-58038, made by Lionel.
