Order NOW – Limited Time Offering

In 1943, a Boeing B-17 was christened as Spirit of the Union Pacific, recognizing employees of the Union Pacific Railroad who funded the airplane through war bond contributions. The Spirit of the Union Pacific was assigned to the 571st Bomber Squadron and shot down on its fifth mission during a raid on enemy installations in Munster, Germany. In 2017, the Union Pacific applied a special paint job to a SD70AH loco as a way of honoring the armed forces. Every detail in The Spirit's decoration incorporates a piece of each U.S. armed forces branch. Our Lionel Spirit of the Union Pacific Unibody Tank Car will look great with any manufacturer's SOUP loco #1943. Car features diecast trucks, metal underframe, and all of the standard Lionel features that are included in Lionel's regular unibody tankers. Please, do not delay; order today. You can also order online and pay with your credit card or PayPal. Go to www.METCA.org
