This BUD's for you! Budweiser, the King of Beer! Historically transported by rail, this shipment of Budweiser is being carried by a pair of reefers with the reporting marks of St. Louis Refrigerator Car Company. SLRX was a private refrigerator car line established by Anheuser-Busch; the brewer's first subsidiary. SLRX was formed to facilitate large-scale distribution of A-B's products via the U.S. rail network. The SLRX not only built its own bunkerless reefers, but maintained and operated them as well. These 100% Lionel made and decorated cars are molded, decorated, and assembled in the USA. The O gauge cars feature die-cast metal trucks. To order online go to www.METCA.org

Available exclusively from METCA Division.

Only orders received by October 30, 2019 can be guaranteed. Quantity may be limited to 100 cars.

First Come-First Served. Only limited quantities will be made. Order early, avoid disappointment.

All checks or money orders must be in U.S. funds. Make checks payable to METCA.
